Happy New Year!

Welcome to 2012 and I hope everyone had a safe and happy new year and that the hang overs are a long forgotten experience.

The big announcement for us this month is the increase in our Koala population. Whilst out walking the other morning I noticed that we have a new baby koala hanging around the park. This is most exciting as the local koala population has been on the decline for a number of years now, so hopefully we will see a few more. And I am sure Bert our "on site" koala will be happy about the company as well.

After the busy period of Christmas and New Year the park is looking great with improvements still continuing. Make sure you keep an eye on our website and Facebook page so that you can keep track of our exciting plans for the future development of the park.

Myall madness has certainly hit. Here are a few comical things we have all had a giggle at over the last couple of weeks:

- Local duck swimming in the pool

It has been a great Christmas and New Year period here at Myall Shores and I would just like to thank the staff for all their hard work during what was an extremely busy time. We are all in this industry because we enjoy what we do, love the guests and believe in Myall Shores Nature Resort. So we hope that we can welcome all our past, present and new guests to the resort throughout 2012 and look forward to showcasing our plans for the resort.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR

Easter...

With Easter being only just around the corner now is the time to book your accommodation. To avoid disappointment make sure you get in quick, we still have a number of villas and sites available but these won't last long.

Make sure you keep a look out on our website for the FREE onsite activities we will have during the school holidays!

Love is in the air...

This year for Valentines Day why don't you whisk away that someone special for a romantic holiday at Myall Shores Nature Resort? Villas start from $150 per night for two persons. Don't forget there is already Leggey's Restaurant onsite to enjoy a romantic dinner.

Coming up...

The Myall Shores "Sand Bucket List"

- Try one of the many local bush walks
- Go bird watching. Do you know we have more birds in the Myall Lakes region than Kakadu National Park?
- Visit "The Grandis" – NSW's tallest tree
- Just relax and enjoy the beginning of 2012

Local attraction

Why not hire a tinny and scare the fish? Did you know that you can hire a tinny for an hour or more and you can explore the beautiful Myall Lakes or catch some fish for dinner that night? A great way to spend the day whilst catching a bit of sun. Also, why not take a picnic with you to enjoy at one of the many secluded beaches.

Jokes...

"The Policeman pulled over a car and strolled up to the driver's window: "Excuse me sir, but do you know that you're driving without a rear light?"

The driver jumped out and ran to the rear of his car and let out a whimpering groan. The driver seemed so genuinely distressed that the policeman took a sympathetic view: "Don't take it so hard; it's not all that serious of an offence..."

"Isn't it" the driver cried, "Where's my caravan gone?"
